FOOTBALL OFFICIALS
EARNING THEIR PAY

New Rules and Many Angles to Sumo Cause Wrinkles to Appear Upon Their Brows.

YALE IS NOT SO CHEERFUL
Brickley's Success in Booting the Leather With His Left Toe the Cause of Gloom—Problems for Gridiron Statisticians.

The business of officiating at a football game in these new football days is causing lots of wrinkles to grow upon the brows of those who pursue the football business.

Most of the officials have studied the new rules so that they know them backwards, but in nearly every game some new angle or trick is introduced, and one of the rules that opens the question as to whether the play is legal or illegal. The officials who judge must be of the snap variety in earning their pay.

Yale isn't quite as cheerful concerning its prospects in the Harvard game as it was before it learned that Charley Brickley was getting quite proficient as a left-legged booter.

Brickley, owing to his weakened right side following an appendicitis operation, isn't taking chances by kicking with his left leg. In less than a week's practice with his left boot he averaged seven goals out of ten, and he hoped to increase his average and the distance before the Yale game.

Brickley may get into the Yale game and he may not. If Harvard needs his boot and needs it greatly, he will be called upon to kick. If Harvard needs his boot and needs it greatly, he will be called upon to kick.

It seems that about one-half of the population of these United States seems to be among those present at the Yale-Harvard game. It is estimated that the Yale-Harvard game will be played in the Yale stadium, and that the application list will number 100,000.

This is what they're saying out West about Pete Russell, the great Chicago quarter back.

Long runs are becoming so common with him that he'll probably be playing fifty yards or so to a run. Russell is a real runner, and he has several runs over sixty yards and numerous ones that averaged between thirty and forty yards.

There is a problem for those who are fond of mathematics.

Washington and Jefferson beat Dickinson 10 to 0. Dickinson beat West Virginia 10 to 0. West Virginia beat Maryland Agricultural College 20 to 0. Maryland Agricultural College beat Maryland Agricultural College 20 to 0.

Those who submit a correct answer to the above may take a whirl at this little quiz.

Wisconsin beat Ohio State 7 to 0. Illinois beat Ohio State 37 to 0. What will be the score when Illinois and Wisconsin clash on November 21?

Amateur Sherlocks may tackle this mystery.

Dartmouth beat Williams 21 to 0. Princeton beat Dartmouth 12 to 0. Princeton beat Dartmouth 12 to 0. Princeton beat Dartmouth 12 to 0.

How do you account for this?

BASKETBALL

The basketball committee of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation has given attention to the rules which are to be played under the Federation to three of the rules adopted by the Federation governing the leagues, as follows:

Rule 1. Every organization entering the league must see that their registration dues have been paid. J. S. Law, treasurer, First National Bank, will receive all dues.

Rule 2. Every club must register every man who is to start in the basketball leagues on or before Friday, November 13. The registration card must be filled out by the player, and the fee of 15 cents cash, A. Van Buren, Room 105 City Hall, is registrar.

Rule 3. No player will be allowed to compete with his team in any post season, championship or tie games, unless he has been registered on or before December 10, and has played in at least a part of two league games.

Committee Meeting. The basketball committee will meet at the Blues' Armory next Wednesday, at 8 o'clock, to finish up all business pertaining to the opening of the leagues.

All teams, who have not registered their men or who have not paid up their yearly Federation dues by this time, will be given a chance to explain to the committee why this has not been done.

Special Note. For the benefit of the managers who may have overlooked this point, the official basketball rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, and such amendments, will be put in the hands of the managers, and it is to be used, which is the official N. B. basketball.

It will be used by all teams, including the colleges throughout the country.

Note to Managers. Every team must supply itself with an official ball and if both teams playing together have an equally satisfactory ball, the referee will use one of the first half and one the second half. If one ball is better, that is tighter, the referee may decide to use one ball the entire game.

The meeting next Wednesday is open to all who are interested in the game, and every manager or captain, who is not fully informed regarding the rules and regulations, is expected to attend this meeting and get posted and ready for the opening games.
